

Attention! Calling ALL Inspiring Artists

This week-long camp is designed for the inspiring artist who wants to explore different mediums.

Studio 101: Creating the Artist of Tomorrow

Open to Students Ages 13-18

June 19-23 from 9:00am-1:00pm

Cost: $125

Have fun in the Danville Area Community College art studio exploring a range of media and techniques. You'll also get a chance to meet and speak with local artists.

Learn from experienced art teachers who specialize in a specific medium who will work with you showing you different techniques. Each day will bring a new and different use of a medium. We'll also discuss ways to make money as an artist and the different career paths where one can showcase his/her artistic talent.

This camp is held in conjunction with First Gig Rock Camp which partners with Art Beat Music Week held in Downtown Danville this week. Art students are welcome to attend Art Beat in the evenings to display their daily works of art and participate in the nightly activities.

Different mediums that will be explored:

- Watercolor
- Spray Paint
- Print Making
- Sculpture
- Metal Work
- Jewelry
- And More!

Location: DACC Clock Tower Art Studio Room 011

Lead Instructor: Jennifer Heidrick

Lunch is included in the cost.
