Heath & Fitness

Tai Chi For Health

Medical and fitness authorities stress that effective exercise for health should include three components: cardiovascular fitness, muscular strength, and flexibility; nowadays, tai chi is practiced in every corner of the world for health improvement. Scientific studies show that tai chi improves and possibly prevents chronic conditions such as arthritis, diabetes, improves balance, immunity and reduces stress. Tai Chi for Health program uses Sun style tai chi forms that are very low-impact, more upright postures, suitable for people of all ages. Handouts of all the movements will be passed out in class.

Instructor: Vic Vanesse

Location: Mary Miller Dance Studio

Fee: $75

Tai Chi – 24 Form

This class provides instruction in 24 Form, "Simplified" Tai Chi which uses movements from Yang style tai chi. Although it has been simplified by reducing the repetition of moves and some of the more difficult kicks it contains the important and traditional characteristics and features of Yang style forms. It is said to be the most popular tai chi form practiced today world-wide. The movements are rigorous, standardized and natural. The body is fully, but gently, stretched. The 24 form enables beginners, young and old, to appreciate the essential principles of Tai Chi's effortless movement, relaxation and awareness of the mind and body as one. Handouts of all the movements will be passed out in class.

Lunch & Learn Series

Travel around the world and learn about far-off lands without leaving the comforts of home.

The Lunch and Learn series is presented by retired U of I professor, Dr. Walter Splittstoesser, chronicling his travels around the world. Programs are held on the campus of DACC in the Bremer Conference Center Theater. Cost for lunch and the presentation is $10.

In the Footsteps of Jesus

Take a trip through the Holy Land starting with Moses leaving Egypt and where Mary and Joseph entered Egypt as they fled from Herod. See sites where Jesus traveled around the Sea of Galilee, travel Jerusalem including the site of the Last Supper, the Mount of Olives, Calvary, and the burial tomb. Take a side trip to Jordan to see the site where John baptized Jesus in the Jordan River and an ancient mosaic in Madaba, which shows the site of Jesus' baptism. Israel is an ancient land that is also thoroughly modern. Travel Jerusalem, along the Jordan River to the Sea of Galilee and south to the Dead Sea. You will see barren desert and carefully tended agricultural land within a country much smaller than the state of Illinois. The Garden of Gethsemane, Bethlehem, and many sites where Jesus lived and worked are a vital part of this trip.

The Wonders of China

Visit Shanghai and the 3 Gorges Dam, the largest dam in the world. Sail the Yangtze River and see the sites flooded by the 3 Gorges Dam. See Chongqin, the largest city in the world (30 million). This was the U.S. airbase location of the famous Flying Tigers of WWII. Look at ancient terra cotta warriors at Xian built to protect the emperor. In Beijing, see the Forbidden City and the Great Wall. China is a land both old and new.

TH, April 12 at 11:30

Egypt

Visit the Pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, and sites of Cairo. Travel to the Aswan Dam and fabled Abu Simbel which was moved block by block to avoid being covered by the waters that rose behind the Aswan Dam. Continue down the Nile River to see temples to various Egyptian gods including Karnak and Luxor. See the Valley of the Kings, burial place of the Egyptian Pharaoh including King Tut. T, May 8 at 11:30

Antarctica, Land of Ice and Penguins

Antarctica is a continent where penguins and seals, not people, are the natives. See seven types of penguins as we travel to Antarctica and surrounding islands. Visit the Falklands and South Georgia with its whaling village of Grytviken abandoned in 1967 after processing 1/2 million whales. The famous explorer Earnest Shackleton is buried here. Travel with Walt Splittstoesser onto the continent of Antarctica for a look at the native wildlife.

NOTE—this session will be held in Lincoln Hall in the Cooper Penny Room. M, June 11 at 11:30

Dixie Swim Club - Matinee

Beef and Boards

Wednesday, February 1

Five Southern women, whose friendships began many years ago on their college swim team, set aside a long weekend every August to recharge those relationships. Free from husbands, kids and jobs, they meet at the same beach cottage on North Carolina's Outer Banks to catch up, laugh and meddle in each other's lives. "The Dixie Swim Club" focuses on four of those weekends and spans a period of thirty-three years. It's the story of these five unforgettable women - a hilarious and touching comedy about friendships that last forever. Cost includes ticket and transportation, soft drinks and dessert are extra.
