

CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Danville Area Community College
2015-2016

---

Floral Design
Certificate Program

The core of specialized courses in the Floriculture program has been selected to prepare the student for employment in a commercial floral shop as a designer or assistant to the manager.

| REQUIRED COURSES                           | HOURS | F,S,I,SU | GRADE |
|--|-------|----------|-------|
| HORT 160 Intro. to Floral Design           | 4     |          |       |
| HORT 161 Floral Design I (pre: HORT 160)   | 3     |          |       |
| SUST 150 Green Facilities Management       | 3     |          |       |
| HORT 287 Floral Design II (pre: HORT 160)  | 3     |          |       |
| HORT 292 Floral Design III (pre: HORT 160) | 3     |          |       |
| Communications Elective                    | 3     |          |       |
| Math Elective                              | 3     |          |       |
| Total                                      | 22    |          |       |

NOTE: This program must be started in a Fall Semester.

Enrollment in developmental classes may increase the length of time it takes to complete an associate degree.

Gainful Employment:

For program costs, completion and graduate information see <http://dacc.edu/aac/cguides/2014-2015>.